Soon there came in a tall, lean, long faced, solemn look ing man, who hailed from the State of Maine. his presented to Mr. Spurgeon a letter of in-troduction, and was welcomed by the preacher. Soon Mr. Spurgeen addressed the new ual power, drawn from your countryman?" O said the member from the Pine Tree State "I was well pleased with it, because it was so true:" and this was said with the utmost selemnity of tone and gravity of manuer. "So true, so true," said Mr. S; "what do you mean sir?" "I knew a Yankee that did that once," was the reply. "And what was his name?" Mr. Spurgeon asked-to which the Yanker answered, "the name sir, was George Washington, perhaps you have heard of him " Source on was dumb for a moment.
